

Japan Education Seminar and Education Fair on 14 March 2009

On 14 March 2009, we were proudly invited to join the “Japan Education Seminar and Education Fair” which was organized by the School of Continuing and Professional Studies, the Chinese University of Hong Kong.

As a guest speaker, our Deputy General Manager, Ms Vivian Wong shared her experience in career opportunities in Japan and in Hong Kong for graduates completing studies in Japan, and the expectations of Japanese employers towards their employees.

This seminar attracted more than 250 candidates.

At the end of the seminar, we had the Q&A session for the candidates to know more about the labour market, and how the job agency can help in getting a better job.
